

Botox is the first and only preventative treatment approved by the FDA for adults with Chronic Migraine (15 or more headache days a month, each lasting 4 hours or more). Botox to treat chronic migraines is given at intervals of about 12 weeks as multiple injections around the head and neck to try and dull future headache symptoms. Chronic migraines can greatly affect family, work, and social life, so it is important to have a variety of effective treatment options available.